

Louisiana State Board of Examiners of Interior Designers

DAN BOULIGNY YOUNG INTERIOR DESIGNER AWARD

The Louisiana State Board of Examiners of Interior Designers has created a scholarship for an outstanding graduating senior from a Louisiana accredited Interior Design program. The Dan Bouligny Young Interior Designer Award recognizes the impressive contributions made to our profession by Dan Bouligny, the founding father of licensing in the state of Louisiana and the first chairman of the board. This award will honor Mr. Bouligny's unparalleled work and his achievements by recognizing the potential of a student who has exhibited exceptional gifts and talents. This student should be a graduating senior who has successfully demonstrated capabilities of performing tasks that are necessary to fulfill professional endeavors.

Dan Bouligny, FIIDA, FASID

Applicants for the Bouligny Award will be judged for academic superiority, extra-curricular participation, and outstanding personal qualities and character. The annual winner will be chosen by the Board.

The Dan Bouligny Young Interior Designer Award will provide funding to the recipient for the Louisiana State Board's intern fee - $25; the Louisiana licensing application fee - $150 if the licensing application is received within 3 years of the date the award was granted, the Renewal Fee for the Second year of licensing - $150; and 1 free board sponsored CEU for each of the first 2 years of licensure - $175 each. The total value of award is $675 and there is no cash equivalent.
